THE [Numb. 818.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the lateſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, January 8, 1761.

LONDON, October 7.

THE following ſix Regiments have lately received Orders to be in Readineſs for Embarkation, viz. Lord Beauclerk's, Lord Panmure's, Lord Loudoun's, Lord Effingham's, Lord Robert Manners's, Crauford's Light Infantry, & Burgoyne's Light Dragoons. And, Yeſterday (Sunday) a fine Train of Braſs Artillery, conſiſting of 22 Pieces of Ordnance, of 20 and 24 Pounders, on new Carriages, each drawn by 11 Horſes, and guarded by a Company of Matroſſes, went from the Tower to Portſmouth: A great Number of ſmall Braſs Cannon, of 6 and 8 Pounders, followed the Train, and the Number of Draught Horſes were 352. A great Number of ſpare Carriages, and other Materials, went with the Train, to be ready in caſe any Accident might happen on the Road, by breaking of Carriages, &c.

Orders were ſent to the Tower laſt Night, for a Number of Battering Cannon, Mortars, &c. to be got out and put on Ship-board, which was accordingly done this Morning: And the Tranſports that have been taken up for ſome Months paſt, as ſuppoſed to carry more Cavalry to Germany, are now ordered to be in Readineſs to take on board 6 or 8000 Foot, and to proceed immediately to Portſmouth; but their Deſtination is not known.

By Advices from Colberg, we find that the Inhabitants have greatly ſuffered by the Siege, the Ruſſians having thrown 4000 Bombs into the Town; however, the Enemy have paid dear for it: It is reckoned that ſince the Arrival of General Werner before the Place, they have had 600 Men killed, and 400 made Priſoners, beſides the Loſs of Honour in flying from an inferior Force, and that too in Sight of their own Fleet.

Lord Ligonier is perfectly recovered of his late Indiſpoſition.

A Dutch Ship, arrived at Helvoetſluys, met on the 20th of September a Bayonne Privateer, who had with him two Engliſh Ships from Boſton, loaded with about 1000 Caſks of Sugar, beſides Indico and Cotton. The Privateer obliged the Dutchman to take 16 of the Engliſh Sailors on board.

Letters from Holland of the 2d Inſtant, import, that a large Body of Hanoverian Troops, under the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick, had divided themſelves in ſmall Parties, had paſſed the Rhine on the 1ſt, and had taken Poſſeſſion of Rhynberk, Xanten, Kalkar, Goch and Cleve, and that Weſel had ſurrendered to them by Capitulation.

It may be depended upon, that the French at Pondicherry are in great Diſtreſs. They circulated Paper Money to their Dependents and commercial Friends about them, till it was refuſed; and, like Agonies in Extremity, rather than Efforts, all the Inhabitants have been obliged to deliver in their Plate, even to their Swords and Shoe-buckles, in order to be coined into Rupees; and every Man who owns a Houſe, is obliged to lay down Half its Value, or it is ſold at public Auction, in order to pay their Troops, who are very mutinous.

Some private Letters received in Holland from France adviſe, that as vigorous Efforts are making for the Reſt of the Campaign, and as many Mechanicks and Artiſans dragged from their Employments, and forced into the Service, as if they had in View the Conqueſt of a Kingdom.

Recruits are raiſing with ſo much Diligence in Hanover, that Parents are compelled to ſend for the young Fellows, their Sons, who have left the Country, to avoid being inliſted.

All the Letters from Hanover mention, how much the French are ſtraitened for Want of Proviſions, and particularly Forage for their Horſes, which muſt oblige them either to fight or retire.

In the late bad Weather, the Maria, Scott, from London to Quebec, was loſt near Plymouth; ſhe was a very large Ironſhip, formerly the Elizabeth Indiaman. Her Cargo is loſt, except 200 Barrels of Powder, the Cannon, Mortars, Bells, &c. The Ship is all to Pieces.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, October 5.

"Laſt Night an Expreſs arrived with Orders to build and repair within a Fortnight, between 30 and 40 flat-bottomed Boats; which are begun upon this Day, though Sunday. Yeſterday his Majeſty's Frigate Vengeance arrived at Spithead, with 23 Days from Quebec, with Diſpatches from General Amherſt."

October 8. We hear that a new Treaty of Peace and Friendſhip is on the Tapis between the Court of Spain and the Court, and that all the former Treaties ſubſiſting between the two Nations, are to be the Baſis.

October 9. It is conjectured that the preſent Embarkation is intended to be ſent up the Rhine.

They write from Vienna, that a Reſolution hath been taken to lay a Tax on the Clergy in the Auſtrian Dominions, equal to a Fourth of the Expences of next Year's Campaign.

It is ſaid that the Neutral Iſles of St. Vincent, St. Domingo, St. Lucia, and Tobago, will proviſionally be taken into Poſſeſſion of.

It is ſaid that the new Acquiſitions of Territory, on the Coaſt of Coromandel and Bengal, will benefit the Eaſt-India Company to the Amount of 100,000 l. per Annum.

We hear that four Independent Companies of Foot have received Orders to embark for Senegal immediately.

On the 20th paſt, Major General Yorke preſented a Memorial to the States General, couched in very ſerious Terms, relating to the Behaviour of the Governor of St. Euſtatia, in giving an Engliſh Veſſel which went to take in a Cargo at that Iſland. The Governor pretends he did it by Way of Reprizal for the many Seizures made by the Engliſh, of Veſſels from Euſtatia and Coracoa. Mr. Yorke demanded in his Memorial, immediate Reſtitution of the Veſſel, ample Indemnification for all Damages, and the Puniſhment of the Governor; the whole under Pain of making Reprizals.

The Anſwer of the States General imports, that they would make a proper Enquiry into this Affair, the Particulars of which they impatiently expected, as they could ſcarce believe, that the Governor of St. Euſtatia would proceed to ſuch Extremities, without better Reaſons than thoſe which were aſſigned, in ſuch a high Tone, in his Excellency's Memorial.

The Eaſt-India Ships lately arrived, have brought, among other Things,

1,984,600 lbs.	of	Salt-petre,
4,382,200	of	Bohea Tea,
74,000	of	Congo,
147,000	of	Hyſon,
1,533,200	of	Singlo,
62,000	of	Souchong,
337 Cheſts 820 Half Cheſts 11 Boxes	} of	China.

It is ſaid Capt. Wilton of the Pitt Indiaman, formerly the Pondicherry, has found out a Spice Iſland, from whence he has brought over a large Quantity of Cloves, the beſt that ever was ſeen. The Dutch had ſome Jealouſy of the Undertaking, and ſent a Veſſel after him, which the Captain being aware of, told the Dutchman that if he did not ſheer off immediately back he would ſink him; which Menace was duly regarded, and had the deſired Effect.

Mr. Rollin the French Farmer General, died the 26th of September laſt at Paſſy near Paris. He left nine Millions of Livres in ready Money.

Letters from Rome, inform us, that the Pope is highly provoked at the Stop which the King of Portugal hath put to all Intercourſe between his Subjects and the Court and Subjects of Rome, in Spirituals as well as Temporals. All the Portugueſe that leave the Eccleſiaſtic State, retire into the King of Sardinia's Territories, by Order of their Court.

On the 12th of Auguſt laſt, the following Wager was decided on St. Hillary Downs: A Gentleman betted Mr. John Reed 20 Guineas to 10, that he did not ride his Horſe 100 Miles in 16 Hours: Mr. Reed, truſting to the Goodneſs of his Horſe, chearfully undertook it, and as chearfully performed it on a meaſured Courſe in 15 Hours and 40 Minutes. He ſet off at Two in the Morning, and finiſhed at 40 Minutes paſt 5 in the Afternoon, to the Admiration of more than 1000 Spectators. Indeed, when all the Circumſtances attending this Affair are duly attended to, it muſt appear as extraordinary a Thing as has ever been performed in this Way. Mr. Reed is a very fat Man, and rode (Furnitute included) upwards of 17 Stone. His Horſe is 14 Hands and a Half high, upwards of 10 Years old, blind of one Eye, and not more than two Months ago fell ſeveral Feet, over a perpendicular Cliff near this Town, which lamed, cut, and bruiſed him ſo much, that it was feared he would never be fit for Service again. Mr. Reed himſelf did not ſeem fatigued, and ſpent the Evening as chearfully as if he had rode only 20 Miles, and continues perfectly well. Several Perſons were ſeverely taken in on the Occaſion.

ST. JAGO DE LA VEGA (in Jamaica) October 25.

A French Frigate, of 36 Guns, was ſent into Port-Royal on Thurſday Afternoon, being taken by the Boreas, of 28 Guns, after an Engagement of two Hours and 20 Minutes, wherein a great Number of French were killed, as were alſo two or three on board the Boreas.

Nov. 1. In the late Engagement between his Majeſty's Ships Boreas, Capt. Uvedale, the Lively, Capt. Maitland, and the French Frigates Syrene, Captain M'Carty, and the Valleur, M. Talbot, the great Superiority of Courage in Engliſh Seamen, over that of the French, was ſo highly demonſtrated to, and ſo deeply felt by, thoſe brave Gallic Commanders, that, ſince the two Actions, they could not help frankly acknowledging it, and declaring, that had they had the Happineſs to command ſuch Men, they would have fought Hours longer: But they were obliged to make Uſe of their Swords, to keep their Men to their Quarters.

This Week five Northward and Monto Chriſti Veſſels, laden with French Produce, have been ſent into Port-Royal; as alſo a Ship cleared out at the Cuſtom-Houſe, London, for Monto Chriſti, where ſhe took in 500 Hogſheads of Sugar, and was bound homeward.

NEW-YORK, December 11.

Yeſterday arrived here in 18 Days from Charles-Town, in South-Carolina, Captain Lempriere, who has the bear came Expreſs to his Excellency General AMHERST, from the Governor of Carolina, deſiring Aſſiſtance againſt their Indian Enemy: By him we have the Carolina Prints till the 29*th of November, from which we have the following Advices, viz.*

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) November 22.

On Saturday laſt an Expreſs arrived, with the Diſpatches to his Honour, from Captain Benjamin Gordon, of the Royal Scots, Commanding Officer at Congarees, and Enſign Miln, of the Independants, Commandant of Fort Prince-George, Keowee.

FORT PRINCE-GEORGE, November 5, 1760.

THE following Particulars appearing to me of ſuch general and weighty Concern, I have forwarded the ſame to Charles-Town with all poſſible Diſpatch.——On the 1ſt Inſtant John Welſh came in here from the Middle Settlements, and informed me "that Louis Lantinac, a Frenchman born, who was a Cadet in Captain Nelſon's Independent Company, thereafter a Trader from Carolina among the Cherokees, and now a French Officer, arrived very lately at Chote, with Preſents from the French to theſe Indians. He immediately ſent down for Salloue, or the Young Warrior of Eſtatoe, who obeyed the Summons, and delivered to him two Letters, which were in his, Salloue's Hands, written by me to Judd's Friend and Oucannoſtota. Lantinac being Maſter of both the Engliſh and Cherokee Tongues, interpreted thoſe Letters as beſt ſuited his own Intereſt; and having preſented Salloue with a Box of Paint, which was accepted, he pulled out a bloody Hatchet, drove it into a Log, and cried out, Where is the Man that will take that up for the French? Salloue immediately ſeized the Hatchet, ſaying, I am not tired of War yet, I will give them, the Engliſh, more of it, and danced the War Dance; after which all the others took up the Hatchet, and declared in Favour of the French. Lantinac enquired if they could give him a Plan of this Fort, or an Account how it was ſituated; what Force we had in their Opinion, &c. To which they gave as true Anſwers as they could, adding, that we had Plenty of Ammunition, if he could but take it. He aſſured them that they alone ſhould have the Fort, and all that ſhould be taken in it, for neither he nor any of his People would touch any of the Plunder, adding, that he would go off, down the River (Tenaſſe, to Fort L'Aſſomption) and bring Cannon and Men of his own to come againſt this Fort; and as a Proof of his determined Deſign to return, left the 10 Frenchmen which accompanied him, as a Pledge thereof, which he aſſured them would be in three Weeks from that Time at the furtheſt." Welſh likewiſe informed me, "that the French Commandant of Fort L'Aſſomption ſent an Invitation to the Standing-Turkey, Judd's Friend, Oucannoſtota, Salloue, &c. to come to his Fort; but if they accepted the Invitation, he knew not." He likewiſe informed me, "that ſome Indians were gone to Colonel Byrd, with three white Priſoners, and that after the Cherokees had declared in Favour of the French, a Runner was diſpatched to bring them back; but whether he overtook them or not he could not be certain."

"As I was not thoroughly ſatisfied with Welſh's Information, on the 2d Inſtant I ſent up an Indian Wench, who had formerly lived with Richard Smith, and had for ſome Time paſt been in this Fort, together with Welſh and his Mother, to bring me what Intelligence they could. The Wench had often been of great Service in bringing Intelligence, and which I had ever found to be genuine, and very exact. When they got to Eſtatoe, Salloue, or the Young Warrior of Eſtatoe, who was then juſt returned from the Overhills Towns, ordered both the Wench and Welſh to be confined, ſaying, that he would have her whipped through the Town, and her Hair cut off (the higheſt Diſgrace of an Indian.) Welſh, he ſaid, being one of his Family, he was reſolved to kill him: The Wench he ordered to be confined, and ſet a Guard over her, but ſhe finding them drowſy made her Eſcape laſt Night, and arrived here by a bye Road early this Morning, with a Child and a Negroe that belonged to her. She further ſays, that laſt Night while ſhe was in Eſtatoe, two Creek Indians came in from a ſmall Town at a little Diſtance from Eſtatoe, where a Number of the Creek Indians were encamped: They brought in a String of white Beads to Salloue, as a Token of their Friendſhip, and that they were ready to aſſiſt them againſt us. Salloue gave Orders to ſhoot any Perſon found coming to us, either with Proviſions or Intelligence.——The Wench can give me no Account what the Barbarians did with poor Welſh. As we are at preſent without an Interpreter, I cannot rely on what the Indians tell me, interpreted by a Trader or Pack-horſeman, little better than themſelves.——

A. MILN."

Thus has the reſtleſs and enterprizing Spirit of our old inveterate Enemy found Means to change every Appearance of Peace with the Cherokees, who ſeem now to be doomed to certain and unavoidable Deſtruction, as they have ſo often wantonly ſpurned the Olive Branch ſtretched out by the Hand of Mercy. The State of the Three Hundred white Priſoners ſtill in their Hands demands the moſt ſerious Attention.——

The Thouſand Men under Colonel Byrd, are continued in Pay by the Governor of Virginia for one Year beyond the Time they were raiſed for. They are returning to Auguſta County, on the Frontiers of that Colony, where they are to remain till the Spring, and then to act in Concert with us, and any Troops that may be ſent hither, in ſuch Manner as ſhall be moſt for his Majeſty's Service, and afford the moſt effectual Protection to his Subjects againſt the Cherokees.

According to our Letters from the Congarees, Ninety-ſix, and Fort Prince-George, received this Week, Affairs in the Cherokee Nation have again a bad Appearance, and all the Pains taken by his Honour our Lieutenant-Governor, in order to bring about a Peace, or gain Time effectually to chaſtiſe our ſavage Enemy, are likely to be defeated, by the Arrival of ſome Frenchmen in that Nation, &c. And we have Cauſe to apprehend, that Fort Prince-George will ſoon be again inveſted.

We hear the Royal Scots in Camp at Congarees, are to march thence for Town the 20th Inſtant. To-morrow the Provincial Regiment marches towards the Frontiers.

Camp

1760.

Camp at Congarees, November 21. "We have of late found out here, that a conſiderable Trade has been carried on for ſome Time paſt, in ſupplying the Cherokees with Goods. We have juſt now taken up ſix Perſons on that Account, of which the Governor is acquainted."

The Accounts mentioned in this Paper ſeveral Weeks ago, of the Shawaneſe joining the Cherokees, are confirmed.

The Arrival of Lantinac in the Cherokee Country, and the Behaviour of thoſe Indians thereupon, having deſtroyed all Proſpect of an Accommodation; we hear the Cherokee Priſoners ſent up to Congarees, are ordered down, and they will arrive here with the Royal Scots, under the Command of Captain Gordon.

It is expected, on good Grounds, that the Southern Parts of the North-American Continent will be very ſpeedily the Theatre of ſome intereſting and long wiſhed for Events.

The Captain of a Veſſel juſt arrived from Bermuda, informs us, "That on the 4th Inſtant, about 35 Leagues W. of Bermuda, he ſaw ſeven Sail of large Ships, which gave him Chace, one of them came up with him, who told him they were Britiſh Men of War, laſt from England, and being aſked, Whither bound? Anſwered, "On a Cruiſe." The Captain adds, that the Men of War were ſtanding to the Northward, and that the Ship that came up with him was the Stirling-Caſtle.

November 29. Affairs in the Cherokee Nation have taken ſuch an unfavourable Turn, that the Priſoners not long ſince ſent up to the Congarees, are now ordered to be brought back to Town, and will come with the Royals; who are likewiſe to bring the Villains that have been detected procuring Goods for the Cherokees.

Our Letters from Fort Prince-George of the 5th Inſtant, mention one ſcalping Party of ſix Cherokees being gone out to War, from Eſſabtowih; and that 30 Fellows were going from the Middle Settlements on the ſame Deſign.

The Virginia Expreſs is returned with full Accounts of the preſent Situation of our Affairs; and his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor is going to ſend an Advice-boat to New-York.

WILLIAMSBURG, December 5.

On Saturday laſt died the Honourable and Reverend THOMAS DAWSON, one of his Majeſty's Honourable Council, Commiſſary for the Lord-Biſhop of London, Preſident of the College of William and Mary, and Miniſter of the Pariſh of Bruton; a Man eminently endowed with Moderation, Meekneſs, Forgiveneſs, Patience and Long-Suffering, of a moſt extenſive and unlimited Benevolence and Charity: Theſe Virtues rendered him beloved by his Friends in his Life, and regretted in his Death; and if it is poſſible that theſe great Qualifications could be carried to an Exceſs, that may be ſaid to be the fundamental Error of his Life. Yet this amiable Diſpoſition, this noble Liſt of truly Chriſtian Talents, could not ſecure him from the Attacks of Enemies; for, it is much to be feared, he fell a Victim to the repeated Marks of Ingratitude and Malice, which he, unhappy Man! too frequently experienced, in his Paſſage through this his State of Probation.

PHILADELPHIA, December 25.

The Ship Molly, Captain Sparks, bound to Jamaica from this Harbour, was taken on his Paſſage, and carried to Port-Louis, by a Privateer Sloop, lately commanded by Captain Fernandez, who ſo barbarouſly murdered Captain Stiles of this Place, and ſeveral others, that happened to fall into his Hands. This Miſcreant was killed the Day before Captain Sparks was taken, by a Shot from a Letter of Marque Snow he was in Chace of. The Sloop had a ſmall Prize Schooner in Company, belonging to Jamaica.

By Captain Gardiner, from Liſbon, we learn, that one of His Majeſty's 60 Gun Ships, and Captain Elliot, in the Æolus, had brought in there a French Ship, laden with Sugar, Cotton, &c. And that a 50 Gun Ship, from the Bay, had retaken and carried in there two Brigs, taken by a French Privateer, of which there were a Number cruizing near that Place.

ANNAPOLIS, January 8.

Sunday Morning laſt, Samuel Tyler, an Overſeer, was found Dead, in the Snow near the Head of Severn. He was ſeen very much in Liquor the Evening before, and is ſuppos'd to have fell from his Horſe and periſh'd with the Cold. It is ſaid, that when he was overcome with ſtrong Drink, he uſed to be a mere Mad-man, and would even Quarrel with his own Shadow; and by his Knuckles being bruiſed, and a Tree near where he lay being Bloody, and the Bark a little beat off, it is ſuppoſed he Quarrelled and Fought with the Tree.

Our Rivers are now all full of Ice, and all Correſpondence with the Eaſtern Shore cut off.
